ARMY MUSEUM OF SOUTH AUSTRALIA
MANAGER'S ANNUAL REPORT

2010 - 2011

Introduction

1. Since our first birthday celebration at 'Queens Restaurant' in September, 2007, we have celebrated the milestone in the following years on the 22nd of September which is eight days before the actual birthday of the Museum. It was officially opened on the 30th of September, 1992. The plaque mounted on the wall adjacent to the archives doorway commemorates that occasion. Perhaps an adjustment to our calendar of events is required.
2. The year in review shows that we have significantly developed the Museum internally in a manner that transforms our exhibit presentation to a very high level and externally we have extended our footprint to include the whole of Keswick Barracks through the development of the Keswick Barracks Heritage Walk.
3. We have met our training obligations and expanded the number of days we have been open to the public all within the budget allocation for the year.

Staffing

4. WO2 Steve Rogers joined us in February 2011 vide WO2 Clive Thompson's transfer to 9CISB and CPL Rose has continued her Wednesday duties with us sponsored by 3 HSB.
5. The Foundation Board has appointed John Nield to its deputy curator position while the ARES postings for the period have been:

Unit Curator	WO2 Jim Love
Assistant Manager	WO2 Steve Rogers
Manager	MAJ Willoughby

6. In August 2011 Allen Puttock and his participants left Keswick Barracks after four years of assisting the Museum with routine maintenance and special project development. Their vacated work areas have been allocated to the Archives and Large Technology Objects sections.

Occupational Health and Safety

7. Our week long audit in June, 2011 by the Army Safety Audit Team [ASAT] has provided us with an opportunity to develop the visual awareness of this important aspect of our operations. Although we have had over 10,000 visitors to our Museum over the last five years, during which time there has not been a single reported safety/health incident, we have been rated as non-compliant with the OH&S requirements as a result of the audit.
8. The recommendations of the final audit report will be acted upon by the OH&S Chair, WO2 Love and his team as a matter of priority.
9. A fire caused by a defective fluorescent tube in the ceiling of building 8 in August saw an immediate and effective response from WRAAC Curator Lyn Smith who raised the alarm and then extinguished the fire before any serious damage resulted. She has been commended for her actions.

Asbestos Removal and Awareness

10. The recommendations of the Army TIGR Team with respect to holdings which contain asbestos have been implemented, with asbestos warning signs placed on objects nominated by that audit.

11. The McMahon asbestos removal company completed the final removal of asbestos from our buildings in April with the Museum being closed for a week while the last sheets of asbestos were removed from our workplace.

Security

12. Two intended Unit Security audits of AMOSA have been cancelled during this year. It is anticipated that the audit will be conducted during the next reporting period.

13. DSG Adelaide has approved our proposal that security passes for our volunteers be issued by the AMOSA Manager, they will be a once only issue and that the register of issued passes be maintained at unit level. Accordingly, the new system will be implemented during the next three months.

Extraordinary Unit Funding

14. Australian Army History Unit [AAHU] was able to provide a once only allocation of funds to AMOSA during the period which saw the placement of the five plinths throughout Keswick Barracks by Nalty Memorials at a cost of $25,000.00, the supply and instillation of five museum purpose designed internally lit glass cabinets at a cost of $70,000.00 and the provision of the information kiosk for the foyer of Building 76 at a cost of $8,500.00.

15. AAHU has requested that we maintain a projects register which they will activate if additional funds are again allocated to the Army Museum Network.

16. DSG Adelaide provided a one off funds request [$1,000.00] for our flag pole to be erected adjacent to the archives building.

Training

17. WO2 Love and John Nield attended the Deakin University, AAHU sponsored, course in January, 2011 while WO2 Love completed the Australian War Memorial [AWM] conservation course this month.

18. The ARES members completed their annual mandatory training in February 2011 while the volunteers training day on 9 February 2011 conducted in the Officer's Mess was attended by 49 volunteers and Reserve personnel.

19. Several volunteers and staff attended History SA sponsored workshops dealing with oral histories, web site development, museum operations and volunteer management.

Accreditation

20. AMOSA is a registered museum with the History SA network which has adopted the Museums Australia [MA] requirements for a museum to be classified and accredited. History SA are the enabling authority for organizations that seek accreditation which lasts for a three year term after which the Museum has to reapply to retain that ranking. Sven Kuusk is liaising with History SA on the issue and will report his recommendations to the Board.

Special Visits

21. AHU Head, Roger Lee and his deputy Neil Dailey attended our History Week luncheon while School Head and Course Director [Museums] of Deakin University Dr. Linda Young visited us on 19 SEP 11 and conducted an impromptu workshop with seven of our staff and volunteers who have graduated from the Deakin training course.

Museum Visitors

22. We have maintained the benchmark set during the last reporting period with 2,700 visitors [averaging just over 50 per week] to the Museum. Booked tours continue to be a strong source of revenue. $5.00 per head is charged for the tour which are usually generated by an organization or interest group contacting the Museum to arrange their visit. A gold coin donation is requested for the casual visitor to the Museum.

23. The Keswick Barracks Heritage Walk [KBHW] is conducted on the first Sunday of each month. When the July walk was discussed on 5AA on the day of the activity 41 people participated. They all indicated that they had heard a discussion about the walk on the radio. $5.00 per person has been asked from those participating in the walk. Radio stations, ABC or commercial, will not put our walk to air as a community interest story if there is any element of commercialism associated with the event.

24. An adjustment to the operating strategy of the KBHW is needed for it to flourish. Either the $5.00 walk fee is abandoned and we seek the indulgence of sympathetic radio/TV hosts or we pay to advertise the activity.

Flag

25. Commissioned in March 2011, our flag will be raised every time a responsible person is on duty at the Museum. A spin-off from this practice is that contractors, workers and Keswick Barracks Staff are developing an awareness that if the flag is up someone is on duty at the Barracks. It has been a very positive asset in that it is a visible display of Unit identity.

Testimonials

26. We are a mature work group [in the main] who come from an era that respects manners, courtesy and good service. These elements are seen weekly as our people go about their tasks and duties. The letters of thanks for tours and services rendered together with the comments in the visitor's book reflect high recognition for the jobs being done by the special group of people who gather together under the mantle of AMOSA. I am proud to be part of our positive and caring culture. Above all else, I value your friendship and express the hope that together we can continue to develop our Museum and firmly establish its relevance to, and amongst, the community of South Australia.

ARMY MUSEUM OF SOUTH AUSTRALIA FOUNDATION
CHAIRMAN'S REPORT
2010 - 2011

I would like to thank the Foundation's Board for their efforts over the last 12 months. It has been a busy year and I am pleased to report that we have been successful on a number of fronts in managing the business of the Army Museum of South Australia Foundation.

The work of Major Barry Willoughby CSC RFD and his staff has been highly supportive of all the functions and activities conducted by Museum Foundation Members and volunteers and we thank them for their service.

Highlights of the year include:

- The transport and relocation of a GS Wagon, Wiles Cooker, Water Wagon and accessory parts from Launceston to Adelaide in early 2011.
- The conduct of the History Week luncheon as part of the State History celebrations in May 2011.
- The launch of the Heritage Walk of Keswick Barracks by Lady Mary Downer supported by patrons at the History Week Luncheon.
- Support from Australian Army History Unit in the form of the plaques and plinths for the Heritage Walk, new display cabinets with associated lighting and shelving, and a new 'information kiosk' for the foyer of the Museum.
- The supply of new display shelving with overhead lighting and glass shelves to compliment and improve our display of wartime material.
- Training and compliance features of our Volunteers Day held in January 2011.
- Volunteer training AHU courses - John Nield – AWM.
- The acquisition and delivery of a Leopard Tank (as yet un-named!) to sit on the SW corner of the Parade Ground.
- The development of AMOSA web pages for the History SA Community Portal.
- The improvement to our systems including documentation of items donated to our collection, the OHS&W audit and development of our Strategic Plan.
- Support from the ANZAC Day Commemorative Council in the form of a grant to provide a computer, scanning equipment and archival boxes for the scanning and storage of our photographic, map and document records and to digitise the material for future display on our website.
- Structural change to our management in forming some separation between the Board and the Management Team.
- Further refinements in our catering skills to support some of the social and fund raising activities.
- Better signage and radio station promotion of the Museum opening times.
- Sales and certification of the 'Colonel Digger Dog' project which has been an outstanding success thanks to the efforts of Barry and Digger, our mascot.
- Our thanks to Peter Collins for co-ordinating guides/tour leaders - a big job, and the training, management and rostering of our volunteers who provide the critical support to tours and individuals as they seek to explore the Museum and Heritage Walk or explore and research a friend or relative on behalf of the inquiring public.

In 2011/12 the Board plans to further develop the planning and strategic management function so that we can operate effectively in the longer term.

We are always looking for more areas of accommodation to house our expanding collection.

We are planning to develop better work areas for our Members and volunteers.

We are looking at the ideas of sponsorship to gain more finances for the upgrading of exhibits. With so many enthusiastic helpers we are sure to develop and grow.

Our special thanks to Foundation Curator - Jeff Ayles & Assistant Curator - John Neild for their efforts in interpretation of the collection in gallery displays.

I would like to thank our web master, David Mercer and Newsletter Publisher, Rene Dikkenburg (Dikko). Both have performed a necessary and valued function for the Museum over a long period of time. We hope we are able to continue with their good work and even improve 'a little' on the production and delivery of our website and newsletter.

I would like to thank our Members and volunteers who give of their time and effort to develop and maintain an outstanding Army Museum which is highly rated by our many visitors and our higher HQ. I would like to thank each of you for your support to myself and the Board in 2010/11 and I look forward to working with you in the ensuing 12 months.

I enjoy the work that I do and I am sure that you do as well.

Thank you.

ARMY MUSEUM OF SOUTH AUSTRALIA
CURATORS' REPORT

2010-2011

1. This report is a combined Curator's Report submitted on behalf of WO2 Jim Love [Curator, Army Museum of South Australia], Jeff Ayles [Curator, Army Museum of South Australia Foundation] and John Nield [Assistant Curator, Army Museum of South Australia Foundation]. The report focuses on major curatorial activities undertaken during the reporting period.

Appointments

2. The appointments of Jeff Ayles as curator and John Nield as assistant curator [for the Foundation Collection] were confirmed by the Board of Directors.

Educational Initiative

3. John Nield prepared and tabled a paper for the consideration of our Board of Directors, entitled "Educational Initiative" relating to the development of interactive displays in the Museum and the further involvement of schools utilizing the Museum as an educational resource. The paper was subsequently approved in principle by the Board of Directors.

4. This initiative will entail direct liaison with outside agencies, the Australian Army History Unit [AAHU], and museums in the Army Museum's Network [AMN] to ensure that there is no duplication of existing resources prior to the professional production intellectual material for use by schools.

Displays & Exhibits

5. In his role as assistant curator, John Neild has taken on the responsibilities as Interactive Display member on the Display Section.

6. A sub-committee has been established for the re-development of the 1914-18 Gallery. SSGT Bob Dikkenberg will draw a plan for the refurbishment of the new trench system. The design will include technical input from Neil Wilson regarding interactive exhibits. The on-going re-development of the gallery will coincide with the forth-coming centenary activities in connection with WWI.

7. The expanded Display Committee continues to meet and have input into the on-going gallery redevelopment programme.

8. Our Display Committee has representatives from all major South Australian unit collections and corps of the Australian Army. This allows our volunteers and friends to be kept informed.

Display Cabinets

9. During the reporting period, an audit was conducted of the display cabinets in our galleries. The audit revealed no less than 27 different styles of display cabinets out of a total of 63. Some were less than suitable for highlighting the objects on display. As a result, a submission was presented to AAHU for the upgrade of some of the display cabinets. As a result of the submission, a total of 5 new TetraS showcases have been installed. These showcases, with internal lighting, glass sides and adjustable glass shelving will provide approximately twenty five percent more display area in the WWI and South West Pacific galleries.

10. A subsequent request for additional showcases was unsuccessful. However, further submissions in the new financial year will be prepared.

11. A total of 10 old display cabinets have been removed from our galleries. As a result from requests for support from Coral Battery [attached to 7 RAR Edinburgh], 6 cabinets were donated for their unit displays and 4 were forwarded to Waikerie RSL to assist them maintain their regional military heritage.

Displays Under Development

12. New displays under construction include; the commemoration of the AWACS/WRAAC anniversary, the Australian Flying Corps and a small arms display.

13. Work on the North Africa Gallery has commenced and should see most of the display upgraded. The display cabinets have been illuminated and the Tobruk diorama is now lit with floodlighting.

14. The mounting of the Musket Trophy [part of the Simpson Trophy Display in the Freeman/Gray Gallery] has been completed. Expansion of the VC honour board is underway.

Security

15. As a result of upgrading the security of items on display, a number of display items have now been secured by stainless steel cable. All weapons on display have been rendered and securely fastened in accordance with SECMAN requirements. Assistance in this project was provided by members of the Large Technology Objects Group and Erik Fridmanis.

16. The Curators will be seeking further advice from the Security Audit Team to ensure the highest standards are maintained.

External Displays

17. The restoration and maintenance of our external displays is an on-going task willingly carried out by Dave Edgar, Barry Goldsworthy and Bob 'Skip' Skipper.

Heritage Walk

18. The development of the Keswick Barracks Heritage Walk [KBHW] has been an achievement well supported by AAHU, AMOSA and District Support Group Adelaide. The new display cases outside the OR Dining Room will continue to be maintained by the Curators.

Acquisitions

19. During a visit to the Proof Range [Pt Wakefield] on the 23 FEB 11, inspection was made of a 155mm Long Tom and 40mm Bofors guns. We have expressed interest in obtaining the guns.

Disposal of Surplus Equipment

20. Negotiations are currently in progress relating to the disposal of an old unserviceable Mk 5 International truck.

Acknowledgement

21. The Curatorial Team acknowledge and thank the Foundation Board members for their constructive advice and support, and all the volunteers that have enabled us to effectively present South Australia's military heritage to all visitors to the Museum.

ACN 103 172 069*INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the members of Army Museum of South Australia Foundation:

We have audited the accompanying financial report of Army Museum of South Australia Foundation, which comprises the balance sheet as at 30 June 2011, and the statement of comprehensive income, statement of changes in equity and cash flow statement for the year ended on that date, a summary of significant accounting policies, other explanatory notes and the directors' declaration.

Directors' Responsibility for the Financial Report

The directors of the company are responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial report in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards (including the Australian Accounting Interpretations) and the Corporations Act 2001. This responsibility includes establishing and maintaining internal controls relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial report that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error; selecting and applying appropriate accounting policies; and making accounting estimates that are reasonable in the circumstances. In Note 1, the directors also state, in accordance with Account Standards 101: Presentation of Financial Statements, that compliance with Australian Accounting Standards' reduced disclosure requirements ensures that the financial report, comprising the financial statements and notes, complies with Australian Accounting Standards' reduced disclosure requirements.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the financial report based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards. These Auditing Standards require that we comply with relevant ethical requirements relating to audit engagements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial report is free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial report. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial report, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial report in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by the directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial report.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Independence

In conducting our audit, we have complied with the independence requirements of the Corporations Act 2001.

Qualification

As common for organisations of this type, it is not practicable for the foundation to maintain an effective system of internal control over donations until their initial entry in the accounting records. Accordingly our audit in relation to donations was limited to amounts recorded.
